

WHAT THE EXPERTS ARE SAYING ABOUT PARALLEL JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME BY SUSAN HERMAN:

“PARALLEL JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME is a critically cogent explanation of how we fail victims of crime in this country and an elegantly lucid prescription for how to make progress in delivering justice to them.” ~Tracey Meares, Deputy Dean and Walter Hale Hamilton Professor, Yale Law School

“Herman’s book is a great addition to the classroom because it prompts students to critically consider the promises and shortfalls in our current responses to crime victims, while simultaneously challenging them to think broadly and thoughtfully about the possibilities for the future.” ~Janet Lauritsen, Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Missouri-St. Louis

“Susan Herman’s quietly passionate manifesto serves to show even those of us committed to preventing victimization that we neglect actual victims, both in theory and in practice. We should not, we need not, and PARALLEL JUSTICE offers both a conceptual framework and immediate, practical steps toward redressing crime’s awful impact on individuals, families, and communities.” ~David Kennedy, Director, Center for Crime Prevention and Control, John Jay College of Criminal Justice

“Herman not only outlines why parallel obligations to victims and offenders are necessary, she offers a theory of how this might work, with concrete suggestions for where we can start today, in our own communities.” ~Howard Zehr, Professor of Restorative Justice, Eastern Mennonite University, author of CHANGING LENSES and THE LITTLE BOOK OF RESTORATIVE JUSTICE.

“Susan Herman’s book is a must read for policy makers, criminal justice officials, victim services providers, and survivors of crime as we forge ahead to create a more comprehensive and “just” system for all crime victims.” ~Judy Rex, Executive Director, Vermont Center for Crime Victim Services

“In PARALLEL JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME Susan Herman makes the case for a paradigm shifting concept that will ultimately prove to be the single greatest thing we can do to help victims of crime rebuild their lives.” ~Jim Bueermann, Chief of Police, Redlands, California
